Worried about what you can expect at your first meeting of Narcotics Anonymous?

We tried many things and failed. Our disease told us that this would just be another failure. We feared the judgment of those who would be there, we feared seeing those we may have known while using, those who had wronged us, and those we had wronged. Basically, we had a lot of fear, but with the smallest bit of hope, born of desperation, we walked in anyway.

What we found was immediate acceptance and understanding of who we were and where we were coming from. We found people who had been where we were now and found a simple way out. They welcomed us with open arms, open minds and open hearts. From that moment on we found that the choice was ours to make.

We found a way to keep that one choice being, DON'T USE, in the forefront of our minds and actions. We found a path to freedom from our self-imposed hell. We found life, and others to help us travel that path, and a road map so we didn't stumble blind and alone anymore. We found Hope.
